

Services

Let Luxor Media take the guesswork out of the complicated aspects of music and video production and distribution, and get your project on the fast track to success.

In addition, because we are a not for profit, we can offer our services at rock-bottom prices, able to support even the most financially challenged artist or film maker.

Some of the services we provide for your Film/Video and Music/Audio include:

Distribution

Have a project you need at retail or uploaded to internet locations?

Marketing

Need to get some exposure for your project?

Mastering

An un-mastered compilation can leave you with sub-par audio and video results, dont let this happen to your hard work!

Production

The final production steps can be crucial to the success of your project, where does your stand?
